AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 28th Day of May, 1752.

PRESENT,

Their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices in Council.

THEIR Excellencies the Lords Juſtices in Council were this Day pleaſed to Order, That the Parliament, which ſtands prorogued to Thurſday the Fourth of June next, ſhould be further prorogued to Thurſday the Sixteenth Day of July following.

WHEREAS upon Information given to his Majeſty in September laſt, that the Plague did at that Time rage with the greateſt Violence in Conſtantinople, and in the Parts adjacent:—His Majeſty was pleaſed, out of his tender Regard for the Preſervation of his People, and for the better preventing the Contagion from being brought into this Kingdom, or into the Iſles of Jerſey, Guernſey, Alderney, Sark or Man, to iſſue his Order in Council upon the 4th Day of the ſaid Month of September, requiring and commanding all Ships and Veſſels at that Time arrived and not unladen, or that ſhould thereafter arrive in any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or of the Iſles of Jerſey, Guernſey, Alderney, Sark or Man, from the Levant, to perform a Quarantine of Forty Days, and to obſerve ſuch Rules and Directions as were particularly ſpecified in the ſaid Order: And for avoiding all Doubts concerning the Extent of the Levant, his Majeſty was further pleaſed, by a ſubſequent Order in Council dated the 11th of October laſt, to declare and order, that the Limits of the Levant ſhould be underſtood in this Caſe, to extend Eaſtward from the Iſle of Corfu on the Borders of Greece in the Ionian Sea, and from Cape Ruſata on the Coaſt of Barca in Africa. — In purſuance of which Orders, all Ships and Veſſels, Goods and Perſons, coming from any Ports or Places within the ſaid Limits, have hitherto not only performed a full Quarantine of Forty Days, but the Goods have likewiſe been opened, unpacked, and aired, before the Ship hath been permitted to unload: And whereas the Levant Company have preſented a Petition to their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices at this Board, ſetting forth, (amongſt other Things) that the Plague hath ceaſed at Conſtantinople, and that there hath not been in any of the other Parts of Turkey, any Peſtilential Diſtemper for a great Length of Time paſt; and that they had been credibly informed, that a Dutch Ship having a clean Bill of Health from Smyrna, was lately permitted to come up to the City of Amſterdam, and to unload directly, without the Performance of any Quarantine; they therefore prayed, That all Ships from Turkey belonging to his Majeſty's Subjects, and accompanied with clean Bills of Health, might be permitted for the Future, to come to the Place of Diſcharge, and there unload as uſual, without any Interruption on Account of Quarantine: And whereas there was this Day laid before their Excellencies, the Advices which have lately been received from his Majeſty's Miniſter at the Ottoman Porte, whereby it appears, that the Cities of Conſtantinople and Smyrna have been for ſeveral Months paſt, and are at this Time free from all Manner of Contagion; —And likewiſe a Letter from his Majeſty's Miniſter in Holland, repreſenting that the States General have received the like Advices from their Miniſter in Turkey, and that they had thereupon come to the following Reſolutions on the 1ſt of this Inſtant May, viz.

" To allow for the preſent, and until further Orders, to all Ships coming from Smyrna " with clean Bills of Health, a free Navigation to the Places of their Deſtination, without obſerving the Quarantine or other Precautions, after they ſhall have been previouſly " and diligently viſited and found in perfect " Health—But with reſpect to Ships and Veſſels that might arrive from other Places ſpecified in their Placard of the 23d of November laſt, That they ſhould be held to a Quarantine of Twenty Days only, in Caſe they " ſhall bring clean Bills of Health, and ſhall be " found free from any Suſpicion of Contagion; " but ſuch Ships are to obſerve all the other " Rules and Directions required to be complied with by Ships coming from Smyrna, " except only the Veſſel named Ruggenhof, " Captain John Weſterdyck, of which Mention is made at large in their High Mightineſſes Reſolution of the 16th of December " laſt; with reſpect to which, it is ordered, " That whatever Place ſhe ſhall come into, " though

" though furniſhed with clean Bills of Health, " ſhe ſhall not be admitted without performing a full and exact Quarantine of Forty " Days, and obſerving the other neceſſary Precautions mentioned in the aforementioned " Placard of the 23d of November laſt, unleſs " the Maſter of the ſaid Veſſel is able to give " ſufficient Proof that he has diſcharged his " Cargo at Smyrna, or ſome other Place free " from Infection, and that his Cargo had been " there duly aired ; and it is likewiſe further " directed, that nothing beforementioned ſhould " be applied to Ships or Veſſels that ſhall bring " unclean Patents or foul Bills of Health, or " other bad or inſufficient Certificates of Health, " but that ſuch Ships be treated in the Manner directed by the aforementioned Placard". —Their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices having taken into Conſideration the aforeſaid Petition of the Levant Company, Letters of Advice, and Reſolution of the States General, and being deſirous to remove all Obſtructions upon Trade, ſo far as may be conſiſtent with the Health and Safety of his Majeſty's Subjects, have therefore thought fit, by and with the Advice of his Majeſty's Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, That all Ships and Veſſels now arrived, which came directly from Smyrna, or that ſhall hereafter come directly from thence, into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or of the Iſles of Jerſey, Guernſey, Alderney, Sark or Man, be permitted to diſcharge their reſpective Ladings without opening, unpacking, and airing, and without performing any Quarantine, under the following Conditions, viz. That they ſhall bring with them clean Bills of Health atteſted by the Conſul there, or other proper Officer — And that the Maſter or other Perſon taking Charge of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, ſhall firſt make Oath before the Cuſtom Houſe Officer or chief Magiſtrate on their Arrival at the Place where they are bound to, that they did not touch at any infected Place, nor had Communication with any infected Ship during the Voyage, and are free from all Infection— And their Excellencies are hereby further pleaſed to order, that with regard to Ships and Veſſels coming from any other Ports in the Levant, they do make their Quarantine for Twenty Days only—But that they do obſerve in all other Reſpects, the Rules and Regulations required by his Majeſty's Order in Council of the 4th of September laſt, particularly with Regard to the opening, unpacking, and airing their Goods ; but this is not to be underſtood to extend to any Ships or Veſſels that ſhall bring unclean Patents or foul Bills of Health, all ſuch Ships being to perform a full Quarantine of Forty Days, and to obſerve all the Rules contained in the aforementioned Order of Council ; and as to the Ship named the Ruggenhof, John Weſterdyck, Maſter, mentioned in the afore-recited Reſolution of the States General, that ſhe be not permitted to come into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or of the Iſles of Jerſey, Guernſey, Alderney, Sark or Man.—And the Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury, the Commiſſioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Lieutenant General and the reſt of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majeſty's Secretaries at War, and Governors and Commanders in Chief for the Time being of the ſaid reſpective Iſles of Jerſey, Guernſey, Alderney, Sark and Man are to give the neceſſay Directions herein, as to them may reſpectively appertain.

AT the Council Chamber Whitehall, the 28th of May 1752.

PRESENT,

Their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices in Council.

WHEREAS it hath been repreſented to their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices at this Board, That Colin Campbell of Glenure, who had been appointed by the Court of Exchequer in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, to be the Factor or Steward upon the Eſtate of Charles Steuart of Ardſhiell, lately attainted of High Treaſon, but fled from Juſtice beyond the Seas, having received Directions from the ſaid Court, to remove all the Tenants belonging to the ſaid Charles Steuart, (ſome of them his near Relations, and all of whom had been in the late Rebellion) from the Poſſeſſions they had obtained of him before the Attainder—The ſaid Colin Campbell did, upon Thurſday the 14th of this Inſtant May, proceed to execute the Decrees of the ſaid Court, taking with him a Meſſenger, (being the proper Officer for that Service) as alſo a Nephew of his own, and his Servant ; and in the Way as they paſſed through a Wood on the Farm of Lattermore, in Duror in Argyllſhire, Part of the ſaid forfeited Eſtate from which the Tenants were to be removed, the ſaid Colin Campbell was, from behind a Buſh, ſhot dead on the Spot.—And whereas it is highly neceſſary that the Perſon or Perſons who committed or were concerned in the ſaid cruel and deteſtable Murder, in Violation of the Peace, and Defiance of the Laws of this Realm, ſhould be brought to ſpeedy and exemplary Puniſhment—It is hereby ordered by their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, with the Advice of his Majeſty's Privy Council, that all Magiſtrates and other Civil Officers whatſoever, and all other his Majeſty's Subjects, do make ſtrict and diligent Search and Enquiry after the Perſon or Perſons concerned in the ſaid Murder, and the Authors, Actors and Abettors thereof ; and that they do apprehend and ſeize, or cauſe to be apprehended and ſeized, the ſaid Offenders, that they may be puniſh'd with the utmoſt Rigour of the Law.—And for the Encouragement of all Perſons to be diligent and induſtrious in their Endeavours to make ſuch Diſcovery, and for the better and more effectual bringing the Offenders to Juſtice, it is hereby further ordered, That if any Perſon or Perſons concerned therein, except the Perſon who actually ſhot the ſaid Colin Campbell, ſhall diſcover any other Perſon or Perſons concerned in the the ſaid Fact, ſo as the Perſon or Perſons thus diſcovered may be apprehended and convicted thereof, ſuch Diſcoverer or Diſcoverers ſhall receive his Majeſty's moſt gracious Pardon.—And it is hereby likewiſe further ordered, That any Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall diſcover and apprehend, or cauſe to be diſcovered and apprehended, any of the Perſons concerned in the ſaid heinous Offence, ſo as he or they be convicted thereof, ſhall have and receive for every ſuch Perſon ſo convicted, the Sum of One Hundred Pounds, to be paid by the Receiver-General for Scotland, according to Directions to be given for that Purpoſe by the Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury, who are hereby directed to give ſuch Orders accordingly.—And all his Majeſty's loving Subjects are hereby required to uſe their utmoſt Endeavours, in their ſeveral Stations and Places, to find out, diſcover, and apprehend, the Offenders as aforeſaid, upon Pain of his Majeſty's higheſt Diſpleaſure. W. Sharpe.

His Majeſty having been pleaſed, by his Letters Patent, bearing Date the 21ſt of April laſt, to appoint Gilbert Weſt, Eſq; one of the Clerks of his Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council in Ordinary, he this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, before their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices in Council.

Whitehall, May 30.

On the 14th Inſtant the General Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland met at Edinburgh, and choſe for their Moderator Mr. Patrick Cuming. His Majeſty's Commiſſion to the Right Honourable the Earl of Leven was read, as was likewiſe his Majeſty's moſt gracious Letter to the Aſſembly. His Majeſty's High Commiſſioner made a Speech to the Aſſembly, which was anſwered on their Part by the Moderator, and a Committee was appointed to draw up a dutiful Anſwer to his Majeſty's moſt gracious Letter, which has been tranſmitted by the High Commiſſioner to the Right Honourable the Earl of Holderneſſe, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, in order to be forwarded to his Majeſty.

The Earl of Leven's Speech to the General Aſſembly, the 14th of May 1752.

BEING again honoured with His Majeſty's Commiſſion to repreſent His Royal Perſon in this Aſſembly, it is with Pleaſure I continue to aſſure you of your Sovereign's ſincere Concern for the Honour and Proſperity of this Church.

In Opening a Meeting of this Kind, it muſt certainly give to every Wellwiſher of our Conſtitution, the higheſt Satisfaction to ſee us again aſſembled under the Protection of the beſt of Sovereigns, of whoſe Regard for the Proſperity of all His Subjects, and in particular for this Part of the United Kingdoms, we are conſtantly receiving the moſt remarkable and illuſtrious Proofs: And here I cannot omit mentioning the late Act of the Legiſlature, annexing certain forfeited Eſtates to the Crown, and appointing their whole annual Produce to be applied for inſtructing the Ignorant, reclaiming the Diſaffected, promoting Induſtry, and happily diffuſing Heaven's favourite Bleſſings, Religion, Liberty, and Virtue, where Vice and Idleneſs, Slavery and Dependance, have hitherto had their chief Seat.——Such a ſignal Inſtance of Princely Wiſdom and Goodneſs, in Concurrence with the Great Councils of the Nation, where the Forfeiture of a Few are made ſubſervient to the Good of the Whole, and the very Weapons of Rebellion are become the Spring of true and laſting Felicity even to Rebels themſelves, muſt perpetuate our Sovereign's great Name with diſtinguiſhed Honour to lateſt Ages.

I am perſuaded, that you Right Reverend and Right Honourable, who have always been Patterns of Loyalty, will now meet together with ſuch Sentiments of the Bleſſings we enjoy under His Majeſty's auſpicious Government, as will diſpoſe you to all Expreſſions of Gratitude, and will excite you to ſet that Example to others, which the Weight of your Characters juſtly may influence them to follow.

Such frequent Experience I have had of the Candour, Equity and Moderation of the General Aſſembly of this Church, that I make no Queſtion of your conducting all your Proceedings in ſuch a Manner as will be moſt agreeable to me, by enabling me to repreſent your Behaviour in the moſt favourable Light to my Royal Maſter.

I know it is unneceſſary for me to admoniſh Gentlemen of ſo much Learning, Wiſdom, and Experience, that Peace, Unanimity and Truth, are the great Objects at which you ought to aim: One Thing, however, which as a Wellwiſher to the Government and good Order of this Church I cannot paſs over in Silence, allow me therefore to hope, that as it is our Happineſs to have regular Meetings of our National Aſſembly countenanced by our gracious Sovereign, you will be careful to ſupport her Dignity and Authority, and not deſtroy with your own Hands our moſt valuable Conſtitution ſecured by Law, ſo dear to your Forefathers, ſo excellent in itſelf, and which your Enemies have ſo often in vain attempted to wreſt from you.—— The main Intention of your Meeting is fruſtrated, if your Judgments and Deciſions are not held to be final; if inferior Courts continue to aſſume that Liberty they have taken upon themſelves in too many Inſtances, of diſputing and diſobeying the Deciſions of their Superiors; it is now more than high Time to think of putting a Stop to this growing Evil, otherwiſe ſuch Anarchy and Confuſion will be introduced into the Church, as will inevitably not only break us in Pieces amongſt ourſelves, but make us likewiſe the Scorn and Deriſion of our Enemies; for believe me, Subordination is the Link of Society, without which there can be no Order in Government.——When I have ſaid ſo much, I muſt likewiſe be indulged to add, that as I ever was, and ever will be againſt Severities of every Kind,

I hope you will take the gentleſt Methods poſſible to convince your miſtaken Brethren of their paſt Error, and at the ſame Time, ſuch as may effectually reſtrain others from following their unjuſtifiable Conduct: Nothing ſhort of my Duty to my Sovereign, and my ſincere Regard for the Honour of my Mother Church, could have prevailed on me to ſay ſo much as I have done. I ſhall conclude with aſſuring you, that as we are happy in an excellent Conſtitution of Government both Eccleſiaſtical and Civil, and happy, bleſſed be God, in a Sovereign, who is the gracious Protector and Guardian of both, it muſt be our own Faults if we loſe the Advantages of ſuch a Situation as our Anceſtors might juſtly have envied.

His Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to renew his uſual liberal Grant of 1000l. for employing Itinerant Preachers and Catechiſts in the Highlands and Iſlands, and expects effectual Care will be taken, that none be employed but who are well affected, and ſufficiently qualified for the Diſcharge of their Truſt.

What Aſſiſtance can ariſe to you, Gentlemen, from the Character I have the Honour to ſuſtain, in carrying on what Buſineſs may come before you to the beſt Advantage, you have an undoubted Title to expect, and ſhall not be wanting, to the utmoſt of my Power, as the Honour of the Church of Scotland ever was, and ever will be dear to me.

The General Aſſembly's Anſwer to His Majeſty's moſt gracious Letter.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

YOUR Majeſty's moſt gracious Letter to this Aſſembly was received with that Reſpect and Gratitude, which become loyal Subjects deeply affected with a Senſe of the Happineſs we enjoy, in living under the beſt of Sovereigns.

As it gives us the greateſt Joy, ſo we eſteem it our higheſt Honour, that your Majeſty has ſo often condeſcended to take Notice of our Zeal for Religion and the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and of our Affection to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government: It is univerſally known, that theſe are, and always have been, the Sentiments of the Miniſters and Elders of this Church; and we can, with great Pleaſure, aſſure your Majeſty, that the Generality of the People are animated with the ſame loyal Principles.

Your Majeſty's countenancing our preſent Meeting with your Approbation and Royal Authority, is one of the many Proofs you have given of your Regard for the Welfare and Proſperity of this National Church.

The Advancement of the Intereſts of Religion and Piety, is the great End we ſhall always have in View; and your Majeſty's Royal Promiſe to protect the Church of Scotland in all her Rights and Privileges, as by Law eſtabliſhed, gives us the beſt Ground to hope, that, by the Bleſſing of God upon our Endeavours, we ſhall be happy Inſtruments of accompliſhing an End ſo important and valuable.

The Renewal of your Royal Bounty for promoting Religion and Loyalty, is a freſh Teſtimony of your Majeſty's paternal Care and Goodneſs, and calls for the warmeſt Returns of Gratitude from us; and your Majeſty may be aſſured, that we will faithfully employ it towards the pious and charitable Purpoſes for which it is beſtowed.

Your Majeſty's repeated Choice of the Earl of Leven to repreſent your Royal Perſon in the Aſſembly; his known Affection to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government;— his zealous Attachment to the Church of Scotland, and the long Experience we have had of his Fidelity in the Diſcharge of ſo important and honourable a Truſt, entitle him to our juſt Reſpect, and render him very agreeable to us.

It is our great and diſtinguiſhed Happineſs, that while, by inculcating Religion and Piety, we diſcharge our Duty to God, we at the ſame Time gratify your Majeſty, and recommend ourſelves to your Royal Protection.

As we have the moſt grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's Goodneſs, in expreſſing ſuch Confidence in us; ſo we are firmly determined, that nothing ſhall be omitted on our Part, which may contribute to the Advancement of that Righteouſneſs, which is the only Stability of Government, and which alone exalteth a Nation.

That God may long preſerve your Majeſty to be the Father of your People, the Support of the Proteſtant Intereſt, the Guardian of the Liberties of Europe — That His watchful Providence may protect you while Abroad: That He may proſper your Councils, and return you in Safety to your Britiſh Dominions: That He may bleſs their Royal Highneſſes the Prince of Wales, the Princeſs Dowager of Wales, the Duke, the Princeſſes, and all your Royal Family; and that after a long and happy Reign on Earth, your Majeſty may at laſt inherit the Kingdom which cannot be moved, are and ſhall be the ſincere and hearty Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt faithful, moſt dutiful and moſt loyal Subjects,

The Miniſters and Elders, met in this National Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Preſence, and at our Appointment, by (Signed) Patrick Cuming, Moderator.

Hague, June 5, N. S.

THE King of Great Britain, Sovereign of the moſt Noble Order of the Garter, having been pleaſed to commiſſion the Honourable Joſeph Yorke, Eſq; his Majeſty's Envoy Extraordinary and Miniſter Plenipotentiary to the High and Mighty Lords the States General of the United Provinces, and John Anſtis, Eſq; Garter Principal King of Arms, for Inveſting his moſt Serene Highneſs William the Fifth, Prince of Orange and of Naſſau, Hereditary Stadtholder, Captain General, and Admiral General of the United Provinces, with the whole Habit and Enſigns of the moſt Noble Order of the Garter, Mr. Anſtis

Anſtis arrived here from England the 5th of laſt Month.

The Commiſſioners having Yeſterday delivered to his Highneſs their Credential Letters and the Book of Statutes at the Houſe in the Wood, where the Ceremony was performed, and received an Inſtrument under the Hand and Seal of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Governante, wherein ſhe promiſes that ſhe will endeavour that the Prince her Son, when he comes to a more mature Age, ſhall obſerve every Article of them not contrary to the Religion to be profeſſed by him, or be derogatory to the Rights and Privileges of the Holy Roman Empire, or the Rights and Privileges of the Republick of the United Provinces, whereof he is Hereditary Stadtholder, or to the Oaths that he ſhall, in Conſequence thereof, hereafter take.

Which Reſervations being allowed, the Ceremony of the Inveſtiture was appointed to be performed this Day in the Salon d'Orange. The upper Part of the Room was upon this Occaſion raiſed two Steps, and railed in and covered with Turkey Carpets.

In the Middle was a Stall with a Canopy, and the Sovereign's Arms affixed above the Chair; on the left Side another for the Prince, with his Highneſs's Arms placed in like Manner. On the oppoſite Side was a Place allotted for the Deputations of their High and Noble Mightineſſes, under a Canopy, and Chairs placed for them. A Chair was likewiſe placed near the Rails for the Princeſs Caroline.

The Plenipotentiaries arrived at Court about Noon, and were received at the Coach Door by the Great Officers, Gentlemen, and Aids de Camp of her Royal Highneſs, the Guards beating a March. Upon the Top of the Stairs, which were lined with Halbertiers of his Highneſs's Guard, they were received by his Serene Highneſs, and conducted by him into an Apartment, where the Enſigns of the Order were placed upon a Table.

The Deputies of their High and Noble Mightineſſes were received in the ſame Manner, and were immediately ſeated under the Canopy in the Place erected for them.

The Proceſſion was ordered in the following Manner.

Their Royal and Serene Highneſſes Gentlemen and Aids de Camp, Two and Two.

The Prince's Chamberlains.

Major General Bigot, Chamberlain to her Royal Highneſs.

Thomas Thornbery, Eſq; Windſor Herald, carrying the Cap and Feather richly adorned with Pearls and Diamonds.

Garter King of Arms, carrying upon a Crimſon Velvet Cuſhion, fringed with Gold, the Commiſſion, Garter, Ribon and George, Surcoat, Sword, Mantle and Taſſells, Hood, Collar, and Book of Statutes.

Mr. Yorke proceeded ſingly.

His Serene Highneſs the Prince having on his right Hand Baron Burmania, General of Foot in the Service of their High Mightineſſes, and Great Maſter of his Highneſs's Houſhold; and on his Left Baron of Groveſteins, Maſter of the Horſe to his Highneſs, and Lieutenant General, followed by the Officers in Waiting of his Highneſs's Horſe-Guards and Halbertiers.

Immediately upon the Entry into the Salon, the Gentlemen and Officers of his Highneſs, thus proceeding by Pairs, made their Obeyſances jointly towards the Stall of the Sovereign, and repeated the ſame in the Middle, and laſtly at the Places allotted for them.

Garter having depoſited the Cuſhion with the Enſigns upon a Table, Mr. Yorke proceeded to an Elbow Chair upon the Right, and Garter then went to another on the Left Side of the Prince's Stall.

His Highneſs the Prince, having alſo made the like Reverences, aſcended into his Stall.

The Muſick played for ſome Time, and when it ceaſed, the Prince and Plenipotentiaries roſe. Mr. Yorke making his Obeyſance to the Sovereign's Stall, briefly acquainted his Highneſs, that his Majeſty having choſen him into the Order of the Garter, had granted a Commiſſion for his Inveſtiture, which he deſired might be read.

Garter made his Obeyſance to the Sovereign's Stall, and gave the Commiſſion to Mr. Yorke, who preſented it to the Prince; his Highneſs delivered it to one of his Secretaries to be read aloud, during which every Body ſtood up. The Secretary having read it, returned it to the Prince, who gave it to the King of Arms to be preſerved among the Archives of the Order.

The Muſick played again, during which Time his Highneſs repoſed himſelf in his Stall, and the Plenipotentiaries ſat down.

After which the King of Arms, making a Reverence to the Stall and to the Prince, gave the Garter to Mr. Yorke, and they jointly inveſted the Prince therewith, Garter reading the Admonition.

Then the Blue Ribon with the George was put over the Prince's Left Shoulder, and brought athwart under his Right Arm, Garter reading the Admonition.

The Surcoat, Sword, Mantle and Taſſells, Hood, Collar, Book of Statutes, Cap and Feathers, were delivered to his Highneſs with the accuſtomed Admonitions.

Mr. Yorke then ſet forth in a Speech the Antiquity and Dignity of the Moſt Noble Order into which his Highneſs was elected, and complimented him thereupon.

Baron Burmania anſwered in his Highneſs's Name.

Laſtly, Garter King of Arms proclaimed the Stiles of the Sovereign and his Highneſs, during which Proclamation the Prince and all Perſons preſent ſtood up.

The Proclamation of the Stiles being made, the Muſick played while the Ceremony returned in the Manner it proceeded.

After the Inveſtiture, the Prince was pleaſed to ſhew himſelf to a great Number of People gathered without the Houſe, who expreſſed their Rejoycings by loud Acclamations.

DINNER.

A grand Entertainment was prepared upon this Occaſion, to which the Deputations of their High and Noble Mightineſſes, ſeveral

General Officers, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, were invited. When the Deſert had remained ſome Time upon the Table, his moſt Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange propoſed the Health of the King of Great Britain, Sovereign of the Order, and Mr. Yorke drank Proſperity to the Republick of the United Provinces. Then the Health of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Governante, and the Health of her Serene Highneſs Princeſs Caroline, were drank.

The Whole was performed with great Order, Splendour and Magnificence.
